Become part of a free
Highcross Network

As a Highcross occupier you are one of a large network of over 500 different companies, organisations and charities which are resident in 55 Highcross sites from Scotland to the South Coast of England.

At Highcross, we would like to develop further sales and networking opportunities for all our customer base. No doubt you know your immediate neighbours on site, however wouldn't it be fantastic to offer your company profile and services to an entire customer base of over 500 companies.

We are compiling a Highcross Business Directory which will be listed into various categories of industry. Any current Highcross customer can then simply refer to the directory when purchasing either a product or service.

You will automatically be included in the directory unless you tell us otherwise. If you do not wish to be included please email us.
